SOURCE North Shensi broadcasts, New China News Agency
(Chinese Communist) dispatches, and TASS.

Although monitored foreign radio broadcasts yield relatively little detail about the Territorial Command Organization of the Chinese Communist Forces, the following points of information may be of at least peripheral relevance:

The Shensi-Kansu-Ninghsia Border Government issued a directive on 31 March to promote industry and commerce damaged by enemy troops. (NORTH SHENSI, in Mandarin, 11 April 1948)

North Shensi refers to "the finance and economic departments of the Commissioner's Office in the Joint Military Defense Area of Shensi-Kansu-Ninghsia and Shensi-Suiyuan." (NORTH SHENSI, in Mandarin, 4 April 1948)

The Democratic Government of liberated Shantung has extended relief loans to famine sufferers and has started a program of employment; the highway department has been repairing bridges and highways. (NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, in English Morse to North America, 9 April 1948)

The "new democratic government" of "Yellow Dragon" Area of the northwest announced its program. The area includes 8 newly liberated counties northeast of Sian. (NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, in English Morse to North America, 4 April 1948)

The new democratic municipality of Kirin issued loans for industry; postal communications are in order and road construction is making progress. The Shensi-Chahar-Hopei Liberated Area Democratic Government has started a program of reforestation. (NEW CHINA NEWS, in English Morse to North America, 1 April 1948)

A People's Emancipation Government has been set up on Kwangtung-Kwangsi-Indochina borders. (Dispatch from TASS correspondent in Shanghai, in English Morse to Moscow, 15 March 1948; and HANKING in Cantonese, 23 March 1948)

The Hwanglung District has been established by Supreme Steering Organ of the Northwest People's Liberation Army. Lie Shu-shun and Wang Pao-shan are commander and vice commander respectively. The District is to control the following towns: Hacheng, Koyang, Tsingcheng, Yitsun, Chungku, Lochuan, Yichuan, and Hwanglung. (NORTH SHENSI, in Mandarin, 26 February 1948)

Peasant delegates assembled for Shansi-Hopei-Shantung-Honan Border Region Interim Congress were addressed by Wang Yuan-shu, first peasant magistrate of Pingting County, Shansi Province. (NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, in English Morse to North America, 24 January 1948)

The Shensi-Kansu-Ninghsia Border Bank merged with the Shansi-Suiyuan Northwestern Farmers Bank to form a Northwestern Farmers Bank and will issue "farmer" currency as the basic monetary unit of the Northwest Liberated Area. The Shansi-Kansu-Ninghsia Trading Company merged with the Shansi-Suiyuan-Trading Company to form Northwest Trading Company. (NORTH SHENSI, in Mandarin, 16 December 1947)

The Ministry of Finance and Economics of the Shansi-Hopei-Shantung-Honan Border Government appropriated 3 billion 500 million as a reserve fund for impoverished farmers. (NORTH SHENSI, in Mandarin, 25 December 1947)

The Administration Committee of the Northeast Liberated Areas and the Political Department of the United Democratic Army have reached a joint decision on the treatment to be given honorably discharged crippled veterans. (NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, in English Morse to North America, 8 December 1947)

The Industrial Department of the People's Democratic Government of Shantung allocated 20 million dollars to the Pohai district to provide food and raw materials for salt producers. (NORTH SHENSI, in Mandarin, 13 November 1947)
